E-GOVERNANCE POLICY

The SDHR Degree and PG College has formed an E-Governance policy with the foremost objective of transforming E-governance in the diverse academic and administrative areas of the institution. The policy is set out below.

- ▲ To develop and implement a computerized system for collecting, maintaining, and storing pertinent information about students, faculty, tests, outcomes, scholarships, etc. in the appropriate formats.
- ▲ The faculty site is utilized for distributing circulars and applying leaflets, among other things.
- ▲ Mark uploading, attendance tracking, lesson plans, schedules, faculty biometric attendance, and aadhar-based biometric attendance system are all available.
- ▲ Scholarship applications must be submitted by students via the e-pass online portal.
- ▲ Student fees will be collected electronically.
- ▲ Web portals are used to process Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) marks, student support systems, and information for students, technical materials, attendance records, credit transfers, and results.
- ▲ The website is fully utilized as a crucial information source for all parties involved, and all significant communications and alerts must be made available on the website to guarantee that those in need of information are reached whenever and wherever they are.
- ▲ Email will be used to communicate any office orders (apart from those involving confidentiality).
